ORDER

JENNIFER L. ROCHON, United States District Judge:

On October 27, 2023, the parties in this action — brought pursuant to the Fair Labor Standards Act (“FLSA”), 29 U.S.C. § 201 et seq. — notified the Court that they have reached a settlement. ECF No. 50. By separate Order today, the Court is referring this case to the designated Magistrate Judge for purposes of reviewing and deciding whether to approve the settlement.

In addition, to conserve resources, to promote judicial efficiency, and in an effort to achieve a faster disposition of this matter, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that the parties must discuss whether they are willing to consent, under 28 U.S.C. § 636(c), to conducting all further proceedings before the Magistrate Judge. If all parties consent to proceed before the Magistrate Judge, they must, by November 13, 2023, file on the docket a fully executed Notice, Consent, and Reference of a Civil Action to a Magistrate Judge form, a copy of which is attached to the Order of Reference (and also available at <https://www.nysd.uscourts.gov/node/754>). If the Court approves that form, all further proceedings will then be conducted before the Magistrate Judge rather than before the undersigned. Any appeal would be taken directly to the United States Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit, as it would be from this Court if the consent form were not signed and so ordered. An information sheet on proceedings before magistrate judges is also attached to the Order of Reference.

If any party does not consent to conducting all further proceedings before the assigned Magistrate Judge, the parties must file a joint letter, by November 13, 2023, advising the Court that the parties do not consent, but without disclosing the identity of the party or parties who do not consent. There will be no adverse consequences if the parties do not consent to proceed before the Magistrate Judge.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that all other deadlines in this case are adjourned.

Dated: October 30, 2023
New York, New York

SO ORDERED.
